Scrum Alliance Becoming an Agile Coach Micro-credential Training

Duration: 4 Day

BİLGİNÇ IT Academy
info@bilginc.com
bilginc.com

Overview

As an agile coach, you'll adopt many stances depending on the situation. In this context, a coaching 'stance' is the position you take—whether facilitating, teaching, leading, etc.—to guide people through the situation and toward improvement as an agile team. This course will take you through these stances so that you can coach teams and leaders through agile adoption roadblocks and hesitancy, everyday conflicts, and other organizational challenges on the road to continuous improvement.

Prerequisites

There are no formal prerequisites are required for this course. Familiarity with Scrum or other agile methodologies is recommended to maximise understanding.

Target Audience

This course is designed for:

- Anyone who wants to become an agile coach
- Leaders who want to support agile adoption
- Leaders who want to increase the ROI on their agile efforts
- Anyone who wants to be better at the stances of a coach, including facilitating and leading
- Scrum Masters ready to supercharge their coaching toolkit
- Agilists and professionals who want to grow their team coaching abilities

What You Will Learn

By the end of this course, learners will be able to:

- Learn to identify and implement facilitation techniques
- Identify differences between formal and informal learning methods
- Learn about mentor traits, mentoring individuals vs. groups, and creating effective mentorship plans.
- Practice fostering an advising mindset, emotional intelligence and sharing agile insights
- Understand different coaching definitions, mindset, key skills, and differences between team and individual coaching.