Overview

Practical tools, techniques and confidence for clear and impactful business writing

Would you like to communicate more effectively through your writing at work? This one-day Business Writing Essentials course provides practical techniques for producing clear, concise and purposeful business communications, from emails and reports to professional content and everyday workplace messages.

Rather than focusing only on grammar and writing rules, the course looks at the complete writing process: deciding what you need to communicate, understanding your reader, organising information effectively, drafting your message and reviewing the final content.

Common challenges addressed during the course include:

- How can I get started when I am facing a blank screen?
- How can I make my writing clearer and more concise?
- How should I structure information so that it makes sense to the reader?
- How can I improve the accuracy of my grammar, spelling and punctuation?
- How can I produce effective writing with fewer revisions?

Why Attend?

Effective written communication is an important professional skill in today's business environment. The ability to communicate ideas clearly can improve day-to-day collaboration while also supporting your professional reputation and career development.

Whether your goal is to write more clearly, communicate effectively with different audiences or make sure your messages contain the right information, this course provides practical techniques that can be applied across a wide range of business situations.

What Makes This Course Different?

- Comprehensive and practical: Explore all five stages of the writing process and learn how to create messages that are clear, concise and purposeful.
